AdaptAid™

Help Your System Recover from Free Radical and Oxidative Stress

What is AdaptAid™?

AdaptAid™ is a RTM™ Technology live blood analysis* formulated and engineered balance of the most powerful plant-sourced proanthensols, adaptogens, and phytoestrogens available. AdaptAid's™ proprietary ingredient blend of rye grass extract (Cereal secale), Beta 1, 3 glucan, genestein, CoQ10, grapeseed extract (Vitis vinefera), pinebark extract (Pinus strobus), quercetin, and squalene provides the body with the antioxidants and nutritional support it needs to recover from free radical and oxidative stress and to boost the immune system.

How?

AdaptAid™ has been formulated for its antioxidant, anti-inflammatory and anti-microbial effects. AdaptAid™ has the needed properties that may help the body cope with environmental, emotional and physical stress and prevent cell damage caused by free radicals, EMF Frequencies, compromised water and food supply, hectic schedules and environmental pollutants. AdaptAid™ supports neurological and cognitive functions and a healthy immune system and may serve as an essential supplement to counter all the hazardous effects of living in today's hectic, challenging and polluted environment.

What People are Saying

"AdaptAid is a godsend! I had a cough and was trying everything short of antibiotics. I started taking AdaptAid and gradually my cough started to diminish and within a week it was gone. I am now and will continue to take AdaptAid on a daily basis.

Thank you."

— Jan Carvalho, 68, San Francisco, CA
